

Alaska State Library
Historical Collections

Guide to Collection

Palmer, Bobbe F.
Southeast Alaska Presbyterian Records, 1793-21st Century
MS 290

Processed by:
Anastasia Tarmann
June 2015

1 CD
120 documents:
4 folders containing documents
9 loose documents

ACQUISITION: The collection was compiled and donated by Bobbe F. Palmer, former historian of Alaska Presbytery, with permission from the presbyterian Historical Society. Accession #2015-005

ACCESS: The collection is unrestricted.

COPYRIGHT: Request for permission to publish or reproduce material from the collection should be discussed with the Librarian.

PROCESSING: The collection is processed at a folder level.

BIO or HISTORICAL NOTE

Bobbe F. Palmer was historian for Alaska Presbytery in the 1990s, when she gathered the records in this collection. She lived in Juneau from 1982 until 2005. Her husband was coordinator of the Anna Jackman Ministry and General Presbyter of Alaska from 1982 to 1992.

SCOPE AND CONTENTS NOTE

Documents containing histories, biographies, and bibliographies related to the Presbyterian Church mission in Southeast Alaska from 1793 through the 21st Century, with the bulk before 1930. The text is organized chronologically, by town or by subject, and alphabetically.

SUBJECTS

INVENTORY

Folder 1 of 1 CD

- 1 Bibliography – Index of sources by town and subject (46 documents)
- 2 History by Churches – Chronological by location (23 documents)
- 2 Other Kinds of Missions – Bibliography, Haines House, Mission Boat Ministry, MV Princeton Hall, Rainbow Glacier Camp, Sheldon Jackson School and College, Sources yet to check, Women's Presytery Society (34 documents)
- 3 Who's Who by Churches
- 4 Failed Mission Outreach
- 5 Interpretators
- 6 Native Lay Workers in Alaska Presbytery
- 7 Non-Alaska Lay Workers
- 8 Ordained Ministers who served in Alaska Presbytery
- 9 Outstanding people in Alaska Presbytery
- 10 [Chronological] Presbyterian History in Southeast Alaska, 1793-2002

- 11 Soboleff - Remarks by Walter Soboleff, AK/ Yukon Presbytery Joint Meeting, October 11, 2000. Anchorage
- 12 Who's Who in Alaska Presbytery-Final